DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 30 and 34 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

3. Claim 30 recites the limitation "the CPU" in line 11 of the claim. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

4. Claim 34 recites the limitation "the CPU" in line 11 of the claim. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

5. Claim 42 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. The claim is directed to an article of manufacture, which in the specification includes a carrier (See specification page 13, lines 1-4). A carrier is considered non-statutory subject matter (See Interim Guidelines for Examination of Patent Applications for Patent Subject Matter Eligibility, Annex IV, pages 55-57, 26 October 2005). The Examiner suggests to the Applicant to change the limitation "An article of manufacturing comprising a computer usable medium having computer readable program code means thereon" to read "An article of manufacturing comprising a computer usable medium having computer readable program code means stored thereon".

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claims 1, 2, 4, 5, 7-24, 26-28 and 43 are allowed. These claims are considered allowable because of the inclusion in the independent claims of the limitations of the previous allowable claim 3.

7. Claims 31-33 and 35-41 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable, for the same reasons as claims 1, 2, 4, 5, 7-24, 26-28 and 43, if the above 35 U.S.C. 112(2) rejections were resolved.
